

THE THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EASTER

CHORAL EVENSONG

The Service can be found in the Choral Evensong booklet

Introit: An Easter Carol Fletcher

We will be merry, far and wide, in this most holy Eastertide: Our life we owe to him who died, Alleluia.

Now Christ is risen, to die no more, death on the cross who nobly bore; Him therefore bless we evermore. Alleluia.

Good Christen people, sing for glee, and praise the Holy Trinity, from age to age eternally. Alleluia

Lead us, heavenly Father, lead us

THE RITE OF BLESSING AND SPRINKLING OF HOLY WATER.THE COLLECT

Almighty God, whose Son Jesus Christ is the resurrection and the life: raise us, who trust in him, from the death of sin to the life of righteousness, that we may seek those things which are above, where he reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Choir Psalm 23 (Goss)

The Lord is my shepherd : therefore can I lack nothing.

He shall feed me in a green pasture : and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort.

He shall convert my soul : and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness for his Name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil : for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff comfort me.

Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them that trouble me : thou hast anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full.

But thy loving-kindness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life : and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

(9: 36 - 43) (read by Sarah Dudley)

In Joppa there was a disciple whose name was Tabitha, which in Greek is Dorcas. She was devoted to good works and acts of charity. At that time she became ill and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in a room upstairs. Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, who heard that Peter was there, sent two men to him with the request, 'Please come to us without delay.' So Peter got up and went with them; and when he arrived, they took him to the room upstairs. All the widows stood beside him, weeping and showing tunics and other clothing that Dorcas had made while she was with them. Peter put all of them outside, and then he knelt down and prayed. He turned to the body and said, 'Tabitha, get up.' Then she opened her eyes, and seeing Peter, she sat up. He gave her his hand and helped her up. Then calling the saints and widows, he showed her to be alive. This became known throughout Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. Meanwhile he stayed in Joppa for some time with a certain Simon, a tanner.

Gospel Acclamation: (22)

My sheep hear my voice says the Lord :
I know them and they follow me.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John. (10: 22 - 30)

At that time the festival of the Dedication took place in Jerusalem. It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the portico of Solomon. So the Jews gathered around him and said to him, 'How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly.' Jesus answered, 'I have told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name testify to me; but you do not believe, because you do not belong to my sheep. My sheep hear my voice. I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one will snatch them out of my hand. What my Father has given me is greater than all else, and no one can snatch it out of the Father's hand. The Father and I are one.'

Communion Hymn 457 (ii)

The King of love my Shepherd is

THE POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Merciful Father, you gave your Son Jesus Christ to be the good shepherd, and in his love for us to lay down his life and rise again: keep us always under his protection, and give us grace to follow in his steps; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Final Hymn 410

My God, how wonderful thou art
