Weddings at

Emmanuel

We are situated on the corner of Birmingham Road and Little Green Lanes, well served by public transport. The entrance to the Church is located in Little Green lanes opposite the Lanes Shopping Centre. We have a small car park outside the Church Hall with extra parking in the Lanes Shopping Centre

Emmanuel is the Parish Church of Wylde Green and falls under the Church of England. We are well known for our traditional focus and excellent musical reputation. These, together with our beautiful interior architecture and welcoming atmosphere, make Emmanuel a popular choice for weddings.

Parochial Fees in the Church of England

Publication of Banns	£28.00
Certificate of banns, if required	£13.00
Marriage service	£424.00
Marriage certificate, if required	£4.00

The Church seats approximately 150 in the main body with an optional 100 chairs in the side aisles.

Our Church Hall is also for hire subject to availability. Prices start from £300.

Music

Emmanuel boasts two choirs of national and international reputation as well as one of the finest organs in the West Midlands.

Organist	£110
Choir (Trebles only)	£220
Full Choir	£400

A deposit of £100 secures a booking.

Richard Mason, Director of Music, will be happy to discuss your music choice with you. For the performance of certain music, a conductor may be required, for which the fee is £110. The Choir must be conducted/accompanied by their own director/organist.

If wedding couples wish to provide their own singers or organists then the above fees may still be due. Please note that organists may only play with the consent of the Director of Music.

Emmanuel PCC is not responsible for the necessary copyright arrangements that need to be in place for sound or video recording.
